

Copyright Hart Schaffner & Marx

The Daylight Store Easter Clothes

Are here from the leading line of America

Hart Schaffner & Marx Suits
Spring $18.00 to $25.00 Summer $10 to $15

Cooper Spring Needle
Union Suits
The kind sold by leading furnishing goods dealers of America
$1.00 up
STETSON HATS

Walk-Over Shoes
For Men and Women
$3.50 to $5.00
MANHATTAN SHIRTS

American Clo. House

The Good Clothes Store

ELECTRIC THEATRE

Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of next week
18, 19, 20

Ernest Walburn and Susie Lloyd

High Class Society and Cabaret Entertainers

Clean, Moral, Refined Comedy, Latest Song Hits, Something new and up-to-date in vaudeville. Positively a guaranteed attraction. Complete change of vaudeville each night, in conjunction with our regular 4 Reels of High Class Pictures.

Admission . . . . . 5 and 10c

Rug border at Murray's.

Attorney W. B. Dawson was a Rich Hill visitor one day the last of the week.

Henry Brownberger, of Johnstown, was a Butler visitor the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Dayton Rice, of Passaic, spent Saturday and Sunday in this city as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Zwahlen.

DROP IN

And let us fit you out for your

Easter Suit

Ready-to-Wear or Custom Made

SUITS

Ready Made
$10.00 to $25.00

SUITS

Made to Order
$18.00 to $35.00

JOE MEYER

The Clothier

Pearberry coffee 20 cents per pound at McCullough's Grocery, North Main St. 25-3t

Warren Duvall, who is attending school in Kansas City, came home to spend Sunday.

A. Romey, of Rich Hill, was a business visitor to this city one day the last of the week.

Julius Levy of the Sam'l Levy Mercantile Co., was a Kansas City visitor the last of the week.

Bruce Black is spending a few days in Kansas City visiting relatives and taking in the sights.

All style refrigerators at Murray's.

Sam Davis of the Democrat visited his daughter, Mrs. Claude Cosgrove, in Kansas City Saturday.

Oil stoves and ovens at Murray's.

J. S. Gloyd, for many years a prominent farmer of Grand River township, moved to this city last week.

Mrs. C. P. Coleman and family of Johnstown, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Blizard.

Wanted—Butter and eggs at McCullough's Grocery, North Main St. 25-3t

Mrs. W. H. Sherwood, of Kansas City is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. S. Pierce, and other relatives in this city.

Mrs. George Davis of Rich Hill, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harve Johnson the latter part of the week.

M. L. Beadles, the Hume real estate man, was a business visitor to Butler a couple of days the first of the week.

Davenport, dufolds or library tables at Murray's.

F. R. Allen, a former resident of this city but now of Independence, Mo., was a business visitor to this city Tuesday.

According to a report issued by the U. S. Department of agriculture April 7, 9.5 per cent of the hogs in Missouri were lost from disease in the last year.

Mrs. C. A. Burke of Harrisonville and Mrs. J. R. Hales of Rich Hill visited Mrs. E. N. Chastain the last of the week.

Miss Alice Smith and little niece, Elizabeth Phillips, are visiting Miss Smith's sister, Mrs. John Yapple, at Horton, Kan.

Everett Ewin of Joplin, was in the city the last of the week on a business trip and visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Ewin.

Mrs. W. N. Mills returned to Kansas City Friday after a pleasant visit in this city with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Arnold.

Mrs. J. C. Nafus and daughter, Alice Irene, are spending a few days in Independence and Kansas City visiting relatives and friends.

J. B. Walton of the Walton Trust Co., made a business trip to Chicago the last of the week. He was accompanied by Mrs. Walton and daughter, Elizabeth.

C. H. Burgess, who has purchased a controlling interest in the Marshall Democrat-News spent Sunday with homefolks in this city.

Baby buggies and sulkies at Murray's.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Walton attended the opening performance of the Paylowa company at Convention Hall in Kansas City Monday night.

Mrs. Georgia Hall, who has spent the winter in this city at the home of her father, W. J. Bullock, left Wednesday for her home in Florence, Mont.

Monday was a record breaker in the probate judge's office. Five estates were filed for probate on that day. The previous record was four.

Harry Lyle Fisher, son of superintendent J. L. Fisher of the light and water plant, is visiting in Kansas City with his aunt, Mrs. Jas. McCann.

H. D. Chambers and J. W. Baker, both candidates for sheriff were in Butler Thursday of last week seeing the boys in the interest of their candidacy.

G. S. Porter an enterprising farmer of north of Spruce was a county seat visitor one day the last of the week and made this office an appreciated call.

Sewing machine belts, needles and shuttles at Murray's.

J. W. Holmes of De Soto, Mo., will speak at Peru Thursday, April 13, at 7:30 o'clock. Subject, "Co-operation, the Need of the Farmer." All are invited, free.

Geo. Parrish, the Opera House picture show man, was a business visitor to Pittsburg, Kas., the first of the week. Mr. Parrish has a moving picture show in that city.

Linoleum, rugs and carpets at Murray's.

A defective flue caused a small fire at the home of Andy Lockwood in the west part of town Saturday morning. The fire was extinguished before much damage was done.

Mrs. N. A. Stanton, wife of the agent of the Wells-Fargo express company, arrived in this city from Atchison, Kansas, the latter part of the week. Mr. Stanton has been in charge of the local office for several weeks.

Benjamin Roache, colored, died at his home in the northeast part of the city Sunday afternoon, April 9, of Bright's disease. The body was shipped to Ottumwa, Mo., for burial.

Mrs. Lucille Willard, who was called to this city some time ago by the serious illness of her mother, Mrs. G. A. Carruthers, has returned to her home in Los Angeles, Cal. Mrs. Carruthers' condition is still quite critical.

Harley Smith, W. W. Cannon, Dick Haynes, Leslie Choate, James Williams, Fred Hupp and Walter Williams went to Kansas City Sunday to see the Detroit Tigers with the only Ty Cobb in the line up walloped the Kansas City Blues.

C. W. Hess came down from Kansas City Saturday night and spent Sunday with home folks. Mr. Hess is engaged in the real estate business in Kansas City and his many friends in this city will be glad to know that he is prospering.

Mrs. Francis M. Brosius, who holds a responsible position in the office of the U. S. Internal Revenue Collector for the Western District of Missouri in Kansas City, spent Sunday in this city with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Norfleet.

Cecil Porter, of Western Bates, left last week for Bennington, Kas., where he will spend the summer. Cecil has a fine position out there and there is no question but that he will make good as he is an ambitious, hustling young man.

Dr. R. R. Gloyd, veterinary surgeon, will open an office in Butler about April 17. Dr. Gloyd is a graduate of the Kansas City Veterinary College and is a veterinary surgeon of experience. He is a Bates county boy, having lived for many years in Grand River township.

J. A. Carpenter, a prominent farmer of Brewster, Kas., was a visitor to friends and relatives near Butler the first of the week. Mr. Carpenter was formerly a resident of Bates county and his many friends will be glad to learn that he is doing well in Kansas.

For sale—High grade hand vacuum cleaner with fixtures, child's trundle bed, child's safety corral.

E. K. Wolfe, South Methodist Parsonage.

Mrs. T. W. Magee and three children arrived in the city Thursday to join Mr. Magee, the manager of the dry goods department of the American Clothing House. Mr. Magee has rented the Joe Smith property on South Main street which he will occupy in about three weeks.

The case of Bates County Drainage District No. 1 against John H. Stone, treasurer of Bates County was heard by Judge Charles A. Calvird last week and taken under advisement by him until April 20, when he will hold a term of court and render his decision.

It begins to look as though Butler might have a new government building some time in the near future. Deeds have been filed for record in Recorder Fortune's office transferring the Baptist church property and the Sallee property on Ohio street to the United States of America.

Vern Holloway of Kansas City spent Sunday in this city with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Holloway.

W. C. Heddon, "Gabe" of the Rich Hill Review, was in the city Tuesday and Wednesday visiting his brother-in-law, J. A. Barron, who is quite sick at his home in the west part of town. Mr. Heddon made us a fraternal call Wednesday morning.

Frank Mallett, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Mallett, died at the home of its parents, in the east part of town Saturday, April 8, of convulsions, caused by teething. Funeral services, conducted by Rev. E. K. Wolfe, of the M. E. Church, South, were conducted at the home Sunday afternoon and interment made in Oak Hill cemetery.

James Simpson will leave Thursday for Warrensburg where he will represent Bates county in the annual inter-high school declamatory contest to be held Thursday evening in connection with the annual meeting of the Warrensburg-Central Missouri Teachers' Association. Professor Comrod and some of the high school pupils will go along to root for the home boy.

If you are a lover of the big outdoors go to the Electric Theatre Monday and see Joseph Knowles, the nature man. He goes into the woods without anything save his brain and hands and comes out in six months with wild animal skins which he sold for enough to pay for his living expenses for a year.

T. L. Beach, the south side jeweler, was a business visitor to Foster Tuesday.

John Abbey, the Kansas City mule buyer, was in the city Tuesday buying mules.

Emil Haas of Kansas City spent Sunday in this city with Paul and Julius Levy.

W. G. Moore of Kansas City made a brief business visit to this city Saturday afternoon.

Dr. Earl Mulkey spent Saturday and Sunday in Kansas City attending to business matters.

W. C. and E. W. Eldridge, two of Bates counties most progressive farmers and stock raisers made this office an appreciated call while in the city Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Sue Rogers and niece, Miss Helen Catterlin, spent Sunday in Joplin with Mrs. Rogers' son, Clyde, who is a musician with the Martin Carnival Company now playing in Oklahoma. Clyde invited his mother to spend the day with him in Joplin and meet her daughter-in-law. He was married March 18, to Miss Alice Eligh, of Houston, Texas.

C. C. McGinnis the well known ranchman, and W. L. Rider, a prominent farmer of the country southwest, were here Saturday, and their friends were glad to note their improved condition. Mr. McGinnis was recently kicked by a horse and Mr. Rider suffered a broken arm by being thrown from a wagon.—Rich Hill Review.

Dr. R. R. Gloyd, Veterinarian

Will open an office in Butler

Monday, April 17, 1916

and will be prepared to answer calls by any one needing the services of a first class veterinarian.

We Can Supply Your Spring Needs

See us before buying your Field and Garden Fence, Nails and Barbed Wire, Sulkey and Gang Plows, Corn Planters, Disc Harrows, Lawn Mowers, Lawn and Porch Swings, Refrigerators, Oil and Gasoline Stoves, Garden Tools of all kinds, Screen Wire and Screen Supplies, Builders Supplies, Furniture, Rugs, etc.

Come in and see our stock and get our prices.

GENCH BROS.

Removal Sale

From now until May 1st, I will sell my entire stock of Watches, Clocks, Jewelry and Silver Plated ware at cost. Cut Glass, China Ware, Percolators at 1-2 price. All goods marked in plain figures.

I will move in the north east corner room in the Opera House Block, where I will be pleased to meet all of my old customers and as many new ones as will favor me by calling.

N. B. Jeter

Repairing and Engraving Promptly Done.